Right to Cancellation

You may cancel your insurance for any reason within 14 days of the latter of the date your cover started or the day you received your insurance package.

If you do cancel your policy from inception date during the 14 day period, you will be entitled to a return of premium less an administrative fee of £25 to cover costs incurred in arranging this insurance. If you cancel within the 14 day period but not on the inception date then you will be entitled to a return premium less a proportion commensurate to the risk already incurred less an administrative fee of £25 to cover costs incurred in arranging this insurance.

If you do not cancel your insurance within that 14 day period, you will be bound by the terms of the insurance wording and will only be able to cancel your insurance wording by exercising any rights you might have in Clause 2.10 of your policy wording.

To cancel your insurance please contact St. Margarets at the address shown above, giving your written notice.

Financial Services Compensation Scheme (FSCS)

Marine types of insurance are not covered by the FSCS.

Law

Unless some other law is agreed in writing, your insurance wording is governed by the laws of England.

Language

Unless otherwise agreed in writing, the language of your insurance wording and any communication throughout the duration of the contract will be in English.

Taxes

There may be circumstances where taxes may be due that are not paid via St. Margarets and therefore if this occurs it is the responsibility of the insured to ensure that these are paid direct to the appropriate regulatory authority.

Information on Costs

In addition to the premium charged we also make a charge to cover the administration of your insurance e.g. renewals: £8; mid-term adjustments: £10; duplicate policies £15; and mid-term cancellations: £10. For mid term adjustments where no additional premium is payable we will charge an administration fee of £15 if we issue any documentation. These charges will always be clearly shown on any documentation you receive. We normally accept payment by guaranteed cheque or Visa, MasterCard, Switch or Solo.

Customer's Duty to Give Information

It is your responsibility to provide complete and accurate information to us when you take out your insurance policy, throughout the life of your policy, and when you renew your insurance. It is important that you ensure that all statements you make on claim forms and other documents are full and accurate. Please note that if you fail to disclose any material fact to us, this could invalidate your insurance cover and could mean that part or all of a claim may not be paid. If you are in any doubt as to whether a fact is material or not, you should disclose it.

Withholding Documentation

We may keep certain documents, such as your insurance policy documents or certificate while we are awaiting the full payment of premiums or administration charges. In these circumstances we will ensure that you receive full details of your insurance cover and will provide you with any documentation which you are required to have by law.

Data Protection

In order for St. Margarets to administer any subsequent dealing in respect of your insurance it is necessary to process your personal data and where appropriate your 'sensitive' personal data and therefore in doing so we will comply with the provisions of the Data Protection Act 1998.

In order to provide and maintain your insurance cover, we need to pass your information to Syndicate 2001 at Lloyd's, One Lime Street, London EC3M 7HA to enable them to provide pleasure craft insurance.

Unless required by law or as necessary to effect or administer your insurance, none of your personal data (even if not 'sensitive') will be disclosed without your consent to any person or organisation, or be used for any purpose.

The Data Controller is Amlin Underwriting Services Limited.
