Marine Insurance

Summary of Cover

This section contains important information about your marine insurance policy and contact details for claims, complaints and compensation. We recommend that you read this document along with your insurance wording.

Statement of Demands and Needs

This product meets the demands and needs of a dinghy owner.

Insurance Undertaking

This insurance is underwritten by Syndicate 2001 at Lloyd's; which is wholly owned and managed by Amlin Underwriting Ltd whose registered address is St Helen's, 1 Undershaft, London EC3A 8ND. Amlin Underwriting Limited is registered with the Financial Services Authority and its registration number is 204918. It is also registered with the Society of Lloyd's and its number is 01901D.

Type of Cover: Dinghy Policy

This policy summary does not contain the full terms and conditions of your pleasure craft policy, which can be found in the insurance wording.

This is an annual comprehensive insurance policy for dinghies used for private pleasure use. It excludes personal watercraft, jet bikes and similar craft.

The main characteristics and benefits are:

- Accidental damage cover (see section 2a)
- Theft cover (see section 2a)
- Third party liability cover (see section 4a)
- Road transit cover
- 30 days use on the continent of Europe (see certificate of insurance)

St. Margarets is a trading name of Amlin Underwriting Services Limited. Registered in England No: 422615
Registered Office: St Helen's, 1 Undershaft, London EC3A 8ND
Authorised and regulated by the Financial Services Authority

Reference: Dinghy Policy SDY 01/08 / SOC 1 01/08

The significant and unusual exclusions are:

- Wear and tear, corrosion, osmosis or electrolysis (see section 2c4)
- Outboard motors which fall into the water, unless they were attached to the dinghy or the shore by a safety chain or rope (see section 2c8)
- Accumulation of rainwater in the dinghy (see section 2c16)
- Theft as a result of fraud or dishonesty (see section 2d6)
- Any single item of personal belonging worth more than £100 unless declared and agreed by underwriters (see section 3c6), for a full explanation of which personal belongings are not covered (see sections 3c7 to 3c11)
- War and terrorism, except where the exclusion of terrorism risks is banned by law (see section 6a1 and section 6a4)
- The excess is doubled if the claim is made because of something that happens while the dinghy is being used outside the United Kingdom and Ireland (see section 8 3)

Right to Cancellation

You may cancel your insurance by phoning or writing to us.

If you cancel your insurance:

- within 14 days of the beginning of the period of insurance shown on your insurance certificate, we will return the premium you have paid less £30;
- more than 14 days after the beginning of the period of insurance, we will return the premium for the rest of the period of insurance, less £30, as long as this is more than £10. If it is less than £10 we will not return any premium.

If you have made a claim you will not be entitled to any return of premium. If you later make a claim for something which happened before your policy was cancelled, you must repay to us any premium that we returned before we deal with the claim.

There is no return of the document charge.

Premiums

All premiums received by St. Margarets are held by us as agent of the insurer.

Taxes

There maybe circumstances where taxes may be due that are not paid via St.Margarets and if this occurs it is the responsibility of the insured to ensure that these are paid direct to the appropriate authority.

Data Protection

To consider your request for insurance cover or administer subsequent dealings of your insurance we must process your personal data and where appropriate your 'sensitive' personal data and in doing so we will comply with the provisions of the Data Protection Act 1998.

In order to provide and maintain your insurance cover, we need to pass your information to Syndicate 2001 at Lloyd's, One Lime Street, London EC3M 7HA to enable them to provide pleasure craft insurance.

Unless required by law or as necessary to effect or administer your insurance, none of your personal data (even if not 'sensitive') will be disclosed without your consent to any person or organisation, or be used for any purpose.

We have entered into contract terms with all of the companies to whom we pass your data, requiring them to comply with the provisions of the Data Protection Act 1998.

The Data Controller is Amlin Underwriting Services Limited.
